From the Editorial Desk

CYIAP-Network hereby acknowledges the immense contributions of its pioneer President, late S.F. Adedoyin, to the formation and functioning of the network. S. F. Adedoyin was indeed a towering colossus of academic excellence, who rolled the boat of the network, when the water was shallow. Adedoyin's peregrination attests and affirms the axiom that the beauty of life is not in its duration but in donation to nobility. The noble legacy he left behind as Professor of Agricultural Extension and Rural Sociology and the Vice Chancellor of Samuel Adegboyega University, a position he held till his exit, would continue to guide many to the academic-cum-administrative galaxies. Adieu, Professor S.F. Adedoyin.
